

Guide to Online Learning Module 1 – 7 Quiz (Total - 85 marks)

1. What are three ways of saying online learning? (3 marks)
2. What are four types of mediums of communication used in online learning? (4 marks)
3. What are three advantages of online learning? (3 marks)
4. What are three disadvantages of online learning? (3 marks)
5. What are three traits of a successful online learner? (3 marks)
6. Name the three learning styles and explain each? (6 marks)
7. Name the minimum requirements of a computer for online learning today? (5 marks)
8. What are some required software for online learning? Explain what each is used for? (6 marks)
9. Give a quick synopsis of the Internet and its formation. (5 marks)
10. What is the difference between synchronous and asynchronous delivery? (2 marks)
11. Explain why email is not a secure method of communication. (1 mark)
12. What are discussion boards and how are they used? (2 marks)
13. What is the role of a moderator in chat-room? (1 mark)
14. List server are similar to groups (Google), look for a Google group and tell me when they posted their first message, how active they are, and when they posted their last message. (4 marks)
15. Why are personal introductions important in an online community? (1 mark)
16. Describe critical thinking in your own words. (2 marks)
17. Tell me three netiquette rules, explain why each are important in developing an online community. (6 marks)
18. Go to Word. Copy a passage from a news article. Cite it using by: (4 marks)
 - highlight the sentence
 - click references tab
 - make sure style is set as APA
 - click insert citation>add new source
 - input all required information (author last name, author first name, URL, date published, date accessed)
19. Add a bibliography of the passage you cited. Add bibliography by: (1 marks)
 - click references tab
 - click bibliography
 - click insert bibliography
20. What are three tips on how to moderate an online discussion? (3 marks)
21. What is the 80/20 rule? (1 mark)
22. What does SMART mean in goal setting? Use SMART to outline a short term goal for yourself (1 – 2 year plan). (5 marks)
23. How does time tracking work? Why is it better than the old fashion paper and pencil method? (2 marks)
24. How would you organize your workspace at home differently (you can draw this out)? (4 marks)
25. What are the logical steps to research a horse breed called “Canadian”? (3 marks)
26. What is a phrase search, category search, a directory search, and a Boolean search? Give an example of this using the Google Search Engine. (5 marks)
27. What is the current outlook for online education as compared to the information in Module 7? (2 marks)